LEATHER FORM BOOKS READY.

A limited number of Quarterly and Half Yearly Forms are still for sale—some 20 of each. A few may be ready for delivery Saturday. The Half Yearly of 750 pages or more, at $10, will cover by charts and index all the racing from March 26 to August 22 inclusive. The Quarterly of 400 pages, at $6, reflects American racing by charts and index from June 1 to August 22 inclusive. The books are better than were those of the first "edition de luxe," and there are blank pages in each for future form. There will be no paper covered books of either edition and after next Wednesday no books of either class are likely to be left. DAILY RACING FORM's usual rule will be followed. Orders, both local and foreign will be filled in the order of their receipt.

MILWAUKEE'S CLOSING DAY.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., August 28.—The meeting which closes to-morrow has made a good impression upon the citizens of Milwaukee who would like to regard the State Park Jockey club as a permanent institution. To-morrow is the last day and it will be a public holiday. The sport has not been overdone here, and it never will be as long as it remains in clean hands. The results of to-day's races had a get-away flavor.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Riley Grannan lost $8,000 on Rhodesia to beat Clifford at Coney Island last Wednesday.

Byron McClelland is in New York and declares to finish the season of 1896 in the West. Maceo and Prince Lief have been turned out and will not race again this year.

Chas. H. Burns, booking as the Elite Club at Newport, "welched" last Saturday. He took a chance, lost $1,070 and ran away. The association redeemed the investment on the race which "killed" Burns-Raymond's. It was $232 strong. Burns left $90 in the box and had paid $200 for two other days of his draw in.

In the foot notes of early copies of The American Racing Manual there was an error. The first comment appended to the handicap table, which reads: "First column designates weight; second, time; third, column designates time or speed." All copies after those in the first edition have been corrected.

The John Kessler party beat a world of money on the colt at Newport August 22, when, on account of young Isom's filling up and weighing out 2 3/4 pounds over, the colt was disqualified in favor of Ondague. The Kessler party were in the main Louisville men and they idly talk of going to the courts to recover their losses. Kessler, by the way, is a brother to Marion C. by Harry O Fallon—Zuma, and four years old.

THE STATE PARK SPECIAL.

The State Park Special, a noble train, makes its last trip to Milwaukee today. The Special has had a fixed place in the Northwestern train schedule with a clear right of way between the Wells Street depot and State Park at North Greenfield, Wis. It has run like a good watch and pleased its passengers by the service generally given. The train leaves Chicago at 11 a. m. and deposits its passengers at the track in advance of the first race train from Milwaukee. The special is the most magnificent and comfortable ever devised for race track service, consisting of parlor, dining and smoking cars. The fare from and to Chicago, including admission to the State Park Jockey Club grounds is $3.00.
